Come visit the Grand Canyon of the east! Get ready to explore the wild rocky balds of Western North Carolina. We will take 5 days to teach off-trail and on-trail navigation, backpacking living skills, and an introduction to outdoor rock climbing and take some amazing pictures along the way!

We will travel in 12 passenger vans with a maximum of 10 people in each van. Departure will be early on Saturday, March 10. We will start off backpacking on the 10th in Pisgah National Forest near Table Rock and will backpack for 4 days, rock climb for 2 days, and spend one day enjoying the historic town of Asheville, North Carolina! We will return to WV late afternoon, Sunday, March 17th.

Alcohol is not permitted during the trip due to safety and respect concerns. Although showers are available at some sites, there will not be showers every day of the trip, and unavailable during backpacking and climbing.

Total Cost of Trip $310

The cost includes: Camping fees, park entrance fees, transportation, trip gear, instructional fees, and food (road food dinners and 1 restaurant meal in Asheville is your responsibility).

(Extra money for eating out, road drinks, and souvenirs is recommended.)

Philosophy
The Outdoor Recreation trips program is focused on getting people outside to explore new places, gain skills, meet new people, and have fun. Skills and safety instruction are an integral part of every trip so that risks can be decreased and participants can participate actively in the trip and can go on their own trips in the future. Trips are offered to give WVU students, faculty, staff, and their families a chance to gain experience in a variety of outdoor activities while exploring beautiful environments.

Risks
The staff at the WVU ORC is proud of their attention to risk management; however, we acknowledge that outdoor recreation/adventure activities have inherent risks associated with them. We make every effort to mitigate these risks, however, we cannot ensure participant safety or eliminate all risks.

Previous Experience
Experience in an outdoor setting is not required. All activities require medium physical ability and are beginner friendly. No experience is necessary, although participants should expect to work at gaining proper skills for the activity as they are taught throughout the week.
Pre-trip Meetings
We are going to have a series of pre-trip meetings where we will discuss the skills and equipment needed in the outdoors. The pre-trip meetings are mandatory for all participants.
This is to ensure that everyone is prepared. Topics covered will include:

- Trip Itinerary
- Participant expectations
- ORC policies
- Safety
- Clothing
- Cooking
- Equipment (tents, stoves, etc.)
- Group dynamics and team work
- Emergency procedures
